All-County Guest Choreographer:

Kwame Shaka Opere has multi-faceted contributions that span the realms of performing arts, education reform, youth advocacy, scholarly pursuits, and a multitude of creative endeavors. Acclaimed performer of stage & screen, and a renowned arts education strategist, Shaka served as dance specialist advisor to the National Coalition for Core Arts Standard, contributing significantly to the development of the national dance curriculum. Kwame's creative endeavors are a unique convergence of West African dance forms set in contemporary performance modalities to be commentary on social issues that affect all. Through responsible deconstruction and somatic exploration, he constructs phrasings that are a composite of his unique experiences in African and African diasporic movement. His critically acclaimed and award-winning works include Sinnerman's Water Dance and Triumph of Disruption: A Movement to Subvert Status Quo.
